

Helen Horvath

November 18, 1916 - January 29, 2012

Helen Theresa (Murphy) Horvath died peacefully on Sunday, January 29, 2012 at the age of 95. Helen was predeceased by her friend and beloved husband of over 70 years John M. Horvath. Helen is survived by her two sons whom she loved with all her heart, Robert J. Horvath and John M. Horvath and her grandchildren; Dennis, Kara, Stephen, Vanessa, John and Olivia. She is also survived by her nieces Maureen M. Sisk and Sharon M. Courcsey whom she loved like daughters. Born in Patterson, NJ on November 18, 1916 daughter of the late James J. and Margaret (Bohan) Murphy. Her siblings with whom she was very close included her twin sister Margaret and her brothers former State Senator John J. Murphy and James F. Murphy all predeceased her. Helen lived for many years on Atwater St. in New Haven and worked for the former N.Y., New Haven & Hartford Railroad. Helen was a contemporary woman known in the Fairhaven neighborhood for her loving spirit and her kindness for friends and neighbors. She had many dear friends that remained steadfast throughout her life. Helen's final years were spent at the Arden House of Hamden where she was cared for and loved by an extremely wonderful, caring staff. Her family would especially like to thank the staff of Arden House for all their years of kindness. Funeral in Sisk Brothers Funeral Home 3105 Whitney Ave. Hamden Wednesday at 10 am. Burial in Northford Cemetery. Friends may call Wednesday from 9 am until time of service. www.siskbrothers.com