

Helen J. North

November 16, 1920 - October 28, 2013

Helen J. North, 92, formerly of Woodbridge and Hamden, CT, died Oct. 28, 2013 in Bennington, VT. She was the widow of Andrew North, to whom she was married for forty two years. Born in Bridgeport, CT, she was the daughter of the late Albin and Mary (Sulik) Kisluk. Helen was a 1937 graduate of Ansonia High School and attended New Haven College for business and accounting courses. She was an accomplished business woman who began her career as office manager at Kisluk Manufacturing in Ansonia, CT, and later owned several successful beauty salons and restaurants throughout CT. Her greatest accomplishment was her devotion to faith, family and friends. She was a longtime member and communicant of Our Lady of the Assumption Church in Woodbridge, CT. Throughout her life Helen enjoyed and designed floral gardens, loved to cook, and in her later years took up watercolor painting. Helen is survived by her daughter Carol North of West Dover, VT, her sister Jayne Balcer of Bethlehem, PA and a host of nieces and nephews and grand-nieces and grand-nephews. She was predeceased by her son Ronald North, brothers Henry Kisluk, Edward Kisluk and Joseph Kisluk and a sister, Mary Sarella

“ Death of a loved one is never easy. May you find an abundance of comfort in your family, friends and especially the future blessings found in God's word. He has promised to swallow up death forever and reunite us with all who fall asleep in death. (Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29) As a God of love who cannot lie we can certainly trust all he says to come true. (1 John 4:8 & Titus 1:2) It is my hope that these words and the fond memories of your loved one sustain you through this most difficult time.
