“ *Dear Laurie & David,
We are so sorry about the loss of Jack. He was such a happy soul here at Buffalo Bay. The last time we saw him, we think, was watching football here with his Grandfather Peter at the shore house in the fall. Now they are together again. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Betsy, Sarah, Russell, and Robin. Love, Bob, Peggy, Natalie, Sean, Cedar, Becca, Forest & Sarah.*

“ I am Raj, one among many who admired and got attached to Jack and also the Title family. One thing strikes me most about Jack was his expression of a thumbs up when he was in good spirits. It made me appreciate how blessed I am. I could not imagine myself being in a hospital bed for so many days that Jack was and in spite of that he was eager to give me a thumbs up when he felt better than his prior day (s). I quick note about the family and special mention about Mrs. Title (Jack's mom). I admire your courage and positive attitude. Your resilience and capacity to absorb and maintain your calm and collect demeanor when Jack was very ill. I am glad to be able to part of Jack;s life. I am sorry for the loss of the Title family but pray for his soul to rest in peace.
