“ My fondest memory is when Uncle Jack brought he beloved dog Lady to our house to babysit her while he travelled. It was the best summer ever. A beautiful Irish Setter with grace of a lady. He trusted us to take care of her and that ment a whole lot to me. He also loved giving me a hard time about speaking French. I was stubborn and he would just give me that look. I cracked up all the time and he would just say la belle Julie. Rip Oncle Jaques xoxo
