“ My Dad shared with me today the news of Jade's (Mrs. Wu's passing). My tears of sadness quickly turned to tears of joy as the memories of this strong woman and her smile came rushing back. Her laughter, her cooking, her 'GF' that kept her family close, and her kids. I miss my best friend Elaine who I've lost touch with over the years where i remain intent on connecting again one day. Each of you that I've had the chance to know is my fortune and I thank your Mom (and Dad of course) for that blessing. My thoughts are with you all at this difficult time. I will always smile when I remember Jade Wu and thank her for adding passion, purpose, and laughter to this world.

“ So sorry for your loss. Although it was close to 40 years ago, I still remember the warm, exhuberant hospitality of Jade Lee when Bruce and I ate with Mike and other YDS friends at the Good Fortune. May she rest in peace.
