“ Hey Jim, I think of you so frequently. And I think of how much we are alike. More so than I thought. You were always so curious about people and that's something I see in myself as I get older. I want to learn new things about people, about places or in books or movies. Life is so interesting even the simple things. I only wish you were here to share it with. Love you my sweet, dear brother.

“ It's been almost 4 years now. Hard to believe. There are still so many times I want to tell you a story, or share a laugh, but you aren't here. I think about you and chuckle. But most of all, I miss you! ❤️

“ My condolences to the family - I graduated with Jimmy from Sacred Heart Grammar School in 1964. I remember at the time he was living on School St. in Hamden. Having had a major crush on him, I will never forget his blue eyes, his contagious sense of humor and that big smile - so handsome! May he rest in peace.
