“ I remember Jane as kind and caring. I looked forward to her notes at Christmas. Once, I wondered how we were related. Jane told me that Teresa had done genealogy research and that Bronislaw had the name Ostrowski in his ancestry. That probably makes me related through my grandmother, Kazimiera Ostrowski Nietupski. My father was like a brother to her and she expressed hope that the younger generation would keep in touch. I hope we can honor those wishes.

“ I met Jane (and John) at St Joan of Arc parish in Hamden. She was always so kind and sweet. After she moved to Hamden, and I was in SC, we became penpals. I will miss her friendship and her newsy notes. God Bless Jane & John, now united with each other for eternity in Heaven.
