

Jean F. Sielaff

August 16, 1942 - May 31, 2019

Jean Foster Sielaff, 76, of New Haven, passed away Friday, May 31, 2019 at Yale-New Haven Hospital. She is survived by her husband Bruce W. Sielaff, children Sean T. (Charlene) Breuler of New Britain, Christopher J. (Krystyna Nestir) Breuler of Hamden, and Suzanne T. (Roberto) Rivera of Durham, and step children Jonathan W. Sielaff of New Haven and Anne E. (Jason) Beal of ME., Also survived by nine grandchildren, and a sister, Lois Waters of NY. She was predeceased by a brother Frank S. Foster and a sister Joan Foster. Jean was born Aug. 16, 1942 in Oneonta, NY a daughter of the late William C. and Marian Hanford Foster and was a graduate of Harper College at SUNY Binghamton. She was employed at Yale University for over thirty four years where she held several positions including Senior Adm. Asst to the Dean of the School of Architecture and Alumni Affairs Administrator.

At Jean's request services will be private. Contributions in memory of Jean can be made to the Yale School of Architecture, P.O. Box 20842, New Haven, CT 06520 or a charity of one's choice. Arrangements are with Sisk Brothers Funeral Home, 3105 Whitney Ave., Hamden. To leave a condolence to the family see www.siskbrothers.com

Tribute Wall

GB

“ I remember so many times together when our kids were growing up. Especially. I remember Sundays at Jack & Mary's when we would have a Breuler Bowl or some other ball game with the kids and the adults. Great memories.

Gay Breuler (ex-wife of Bob Breuler and mother of Cody B--for those who may not know)

Gay Breuler - June 05, 2019 at 11:00 AM

MH

Sincerest sympathy to the whole family. She will be missed.

Maria Huling - June 08, 2019 at 08:50 AM