“ Carol, John and the entire Dillon Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Janet will be sadly missed. She was a wonderful, strong and hardworking independent woman. I miss her already and will really miss her this summer. When i moved next door to her, she welcomed me into the neighborhood and became a true friend immediatedly. She introduced me to gardening and I will miss seeing her when I am out in the yard. I will miss seeing her sit in front of the house in the summer and joining her in conversation, as many of the neighbors had. She was a truly wonderful person, I cannot believe she is gone and I will and do miss her terribly. RIP Janet, Love, Sue Warden

“ In loving memory of Janet. You will be missed. You were a Beautiful Strong Good Kind Funny Loving Woman. I enjoyed many hours with you listening to your many stories and sharing my crazy stories with you. You were so proud of your children, Carol and John, and I loved hearing the stories of them growing up and the stories of your husband. I looked forward to seeing you and I will truly miss spending time with you. Rest In Peace and farewell for now. Colleen your house cleaner and Friend
