“ So sorry for your loss. My dad (bill miller) was a good friend of johns and always spoke highly of him. I remember many golf stories my dad would tell about them playing together. I would like to think the two of them are probably teeing it up right now. With sympathy Gary and Laura Miller

“ John, Paul and Richard - Your Dad gave me my first real-paying job at John's Market delivering groceries - He taught me how to drive a stick-shift in that Flacon stationwagon - He was a wonderful man - I remember him and the store fondly.
With deepest sympathy -
