“ Dear Dorothy McGlynn, I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the entire family. While I have not had the pleasure of personally meeting your wife, I am truly sorry for your loss. In times like these I turn to God's Word the Bible for comfort, and I would like to share with you a wonderful promise he has made to us in John 5:28,29 which says in part, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Also Revelation 21:3,4 gives us this assurance "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more." May you all find much needed comfort in these future promises. My thoughts and prayers will be with you in this most difficult time.

“ Mrs. McGlynn & Family, I'm very sorry for your loss. May your happy memories help get you through the difficult days & months ahead. I saw you & Mr. McGlynn in the library last year and you told me of his health issues. I am currently on the west coast until Tuesday; therefore, I'll be unable to pay my respects. I will remember Mr. McGlynn as so friendly to everyone. Also, the day he fell off the ladder painting the side of the house it etched in my mind. He was the last remaining of the golf foursome with Dr. Albis, Floyd Atchley, & Mr. Carlson. Sending thoughts & prayers your way.
