“ We are deeply saddened by Grandpa's passing. At the same time we celebrate his life and legacy. As the epitome of our country's greatest generation, he was a true American hero and an inspiration. As our family's patriarch, he was a constant loving presence at all of our family's milestones. We will treasure our memories of hearing his harmonica at our wedding and listening to his personal stories and reflections on the numerous historic events he witnessed over his 101 years. Although Papa Joe has passed, he is lovingly remembered.
