“ My name is Linda Reidy-Wigg, I am sitting in the Kitchen of the old homestead in Ballinagun, Cree, and am looking through family tree. I remember ‘Josie’ he called regularly to Cree Mickey Joe and to my Aunt Mary Reidy -Meaney in Clonina they were first cousins. I remember Josie travelled from Kerry with his Wife’s nephew Tom. Tom always had his accordian in the car and we would have sesuns in the middle of the afternoon. Josie talked very lovingly about his family, in particular grand daughters who were Irish Dancing at that time. Great memories. I live in England, my Dad Johnny (91)was also a first cousin. I am here visiting as Aunty Mary and Mickey Joe are still going strong 93 and 97 respectively , although Aunty Mary’s memory is not what it was. I had heard Josie had passed, but didn’t have address , we have very fond memories of him. God bless

“ To the Guthrie Family...I first came to know Joe through his visits to St. Rita Convent each year. He faithfully registered Erin and Bridgit for Religious Education and upon Joe's arrival we knew at St. Rita that another school year had begun! When I brought Communion to my good friends Mike and Nora McHale they told me that a couple on Harmon Street would like Communion. I gladly went to visit and thus began my relationship with Joe and Mae. They quickly took me into their hearts and served me irish bread and hot chocolate topped with mounds of whipped cream and made me a friend for life. Thier faith ws astounding to me and I will cherish their friendship forever. Joe may the angels always be at your side and may you someday help guide me into heaven.

“ Dear Guthrie Family, Our sincere and deepest sympathies go out to all of you at this time and always. We've heard of so many special times you each had with him so always keep deep inside your heart those special treasured memories and he will always be with you. The great stories you all so proudly share only go to say without a doubt that he was a great Husband, Father, Grandfather and Friend. All of you did a great job taking care of him and keeping him comfortable at home. We're here for you and you're all in our thoughts and prayers always. May God Bless You All.
