“ I am very grateful and fortunate to have had Joe Mike as my cousin. He did a lot of things for a lot of people and was always kind, brave, generous and sincere. He was proud of his Irish heritage and he had a great sense of humor. I have many good memories of him and am thankful for his good advice over the years. I always felt safe when Joe-Mike was around. Much love and many prayers for Joe Mike and all the Twohills.
