“ Please allow me to extend my deepest sympathies to you and your family at the passing of your wife and mother. In my relatively brief friendship with Mary Beth there is living proof she was a great mother. Having come to know and respect Mr. Keating there is even further proof that she was a great woman. Because as we all know, behind every great man is an ever greater woman. I only regret not getting to know her personally. May God Bless them, you and your family.
