Katherine Waldron McCrann, 98, of Cheshire and formerly of Branford and Hamden, died on March 17, 2015 at Elim Park.

She was the beloved wife of the late Walter F. Waldron for sixty-three years. Kay was the mother of Thomas Waldron and Katherine (Kate) Waldron of Stony Creek, CT.

Kay was the daughter of Catherine and Michael McCrann.

She was predeceased by her sister, Genevieve and brothers, Jim, John, Leo, Harold and Henry and son-in-law,

James W. Rockefeller. She is survived by many nieces, nephews and wonderful friends and former son-in-law, Philip A. Diglio.

Katherine earned her Associates Degree at Stevens Business College in Massachusetts and was employed at the Standard Tool Company as the Executive Secretary to the CEO.

She met her soul mate, Walter, on the Cape in Hyannis in the summer of 1946.

Always warm, kind and generous of spirit with a zest for life, Kay was devoted to her family and many friends. She treasured the memories of weekends on the shoreline and trips through New England and to Canada and Europe. “ Kate,

We're so sorry to read of your loss.

Over 18 years later, I still miss having your parents across the street. I can see the beautiful basket of flowers on the steps and impatiens around the tree!
