“ I am so very sorry to hear of your loss, Dawn. I remember back when you were a student and Kenny would bring us treats. You spoke so highly of him and always with love in your voice. I loved hearing about your camping trips to Black Rock and I pray that someday your memories will bring you solace. Words are simply not enough.

“ I played Paintball weekly with Kenny and his son around 2005 in Hamden, CT. He was always a pleasure to compete with, and such a generous guy with his time and equipment. I lost touch after leaving CT, but this is such sad news. To the now young man who played with us at the cement yard, I'm sorry...your father was a cool guy.
