“ Kevin's sense of humor was always sharp and very entertaining , which is no doubt a product of his strong and proud Irish lineage. Though we haven't communicated for decades , I can still remember the many times he made us laugh.

“ I will always remember Kevin as being the best dressed, wearing pastel sweaters and very preppy plaids. I close my eyes and see him looking over his glasses with always a seriously contemplated comment. He will be greatly missed, one of a kind. Endearing to all who knew him. He was a nice friend.
