“ *To the Valentis Family,
I was sad to see that your wonderful dad passed recently. He was such a nice guy! I'll always remember the fun I had hanging around with Karen in your home and at the hockey games in Jr High. I saw him not to long ago with Mary-Nell up at the beach in Rhode Island. Please accept my heartfelt condolences to you all!
Deepest Sympathy,
Carolyn Saleh Kelly ❤️*

“ Larry & Billy, I saw this notice about your Dad. Sorry to hear. I also see your Mom has passed. I remember both of them coming to our Ted's Cleaners hockey games. Great people and always friendly to me and the all the guys on the team. Great memories from the rink and that championship year. I hope Billy, yourself and your families are well. Give everyone my regards. Would like to talk over old times if you are ever up for it.

My Condolences for your Mom & Dad.

“ RIP Larry. Larry was amazing ! He could do everything and he was a perfectionist in his work. Hard working and honest, he sold himself short. He loved animals and his grandchildren and I believe that he's been reunited with his beloved wife Marynell. My deepest sympathy to all of the Valintis family.
