“ Not only did Lee light up every room he walked into; he could light up an elevator as well. As many of us have experienced, people often do not speak to each other in elevators and at times the silence is awkward. I remember riding in an elevator with the Barrett family and at the age of 4 y/o Lee would try to break that awkward silence by asking a question or by making an observation. One night while taking an elevator he turned around and asked the people behind us "how bout that economy." Needless to say everyone roared with laughter. Lee was a very special individual and was much wiser than his years. He had a great sense of humor, gentle soul and a huge heart. The world is a better place because of you. We will always love you Lee and will forever miss you. Love, Aunt Kim and Kat (as he would say Aunt Kim Kat)

“ One of my fondest memories of Lee was from our 1st grade school trip to the Hamden firehouse. By his own choice, Lee was the spokesperson for the class. He asked so many questions and shared his very thoughtful insights on fire safety as well. This little but very mature 1st grader took the firemen by surprise and impressed us all. He was a very close friend of my boys and they shared some of their most cherished moments with him and his wonderful family throughout their childhood. God Bless you Mark, Tara and Will and help your through these days ahead.
