

Linda A. Caruso

February 10, 1953 - November 10, 2025

Linda A. Caruso, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and cherished friend to many, passed away peacefully at home on November 10th. She was a lifelong resident of Hamden, CT. Linda was a tireless advocate for her family. She is leaving behind a legacy of love and compassion that will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Linda's greatest joy in life was her family. She was a devoted wife and mother who gave selflessly, always putting others before herself. Her home was a place of comfort and refuge. She took special joy in being Grandma Linny to her grandsons, Max and Dougie. She loved them to the moon and back! Linda was also a proud nurse who worked for many years at the Whitney Center in Hamden. Her patients always appreciated her strength, her grace, and her ability to find light even in difficult times. She was a compassionate caregiver. Linda is survived by her husband Valentino Caruso, children Valentino Caruso (Rawan Gomaa) and Dawn Caruso (Bobby Stannard), sister Kathy Prece, grandkids Max and Dougie, as well as her daughter-in-law Sara Schmidt. She leaves behind countless friends who will forever carry her memory in their hearts. Though she has left this world, her strength and her commitment to family and friends will continue to guide and inspire all who were fortunate enough to know her. A Mass of Christian Burial will be Celebrated Saturday at 10 a.m. in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. Friends are asked to go directly to church. Burial in Centerville Cemetery. Calling hours are Friday from 4 - 7 p.m. in Sisk Brothers Funeral Home 3105 Whitney Ave. Hamden. To leave an online condolence

“ To Val and the entire Caruso family I wish to extend my sincerest condolences on the passing of your wife. It was so nice to see you last week at J Roos and reconnect. I always loved and respected the Caruso family from all those days at Rochford and Legion field when we were all kids. May she rest in peace. Sounds like she was a wonderful lady!
