“ My boyfriend was away at law school in Gainesville, Fl when my senior prom took place in 1966. Being the true gentleman that Lloyd was, he took pity on me and with my boyfriend’s OK, he escorted me to the prom! A true friend, always. I was so sad to learn he passed away at such a young age. May all the good memories sustain you.

Oh my goodness! Lloyd was an old boyfriend of mine when we were in high school. Dancing brought us together. We loved to dance! He was an awesome dancer and an awesome boyfriend. Eventually, we broke up and went our separate ways and lost touch over the years. Lloyd’s name came up recently when a girlfriend Kathy Bauer and I were reminiscing about our high school days. Since it’s been a long time since high school, I decided to Google him to see where he might be living. To my shock, I found this obituary. I’m so saddened to read of his passing, but I’m happy to know he had such a wonderful life and has a wonderful family.

RIP, dear Lloyd.
