

Lucy M. Tartaglia

March 15, 1936 - July 25, 2025

In New Haven on July 25, 2025, Lucy M. Tartaglia, 89, of Hamden, passed away peacefully. She was the beloved wife of the late Sebastian Tartaglia and a devoted mother to Joseph Tartaglia of Bethany (Connie LaFemina), John Tartaglia of Hamden and a stepson Carl Tartaglia of East Hampton. She was also the cherished sister of Mary Luciano of Orange.

Lucy was born in New Haven on March 15, 1936, the daughter of the late Joseph and Antoinette Passariello Campano. She was predeceased by her brothers Joseph, Ralph, and Stephen Campano, and her sister Lucia Campano. She is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She graduated from Boardman Trade School in New Haven, where she studied to become a seamstress. Sewing remained a lifelong hobby and creative outlet that she carried with her throughout her life.

A woman of great strength and quiet determination, Lucy lived her life with resilience, independence, and a deep sense of purpose. She overcame many of life's challenges with grace and never lost sight of what mattered most—her family. She was the proud grandmother of Gabriel and Frank Tartaglia, who brought her endless joy. Lucy was a passionate Yankees fan and found happiness in the simple pleasures of life—especially Sunday dinners, where she welcomed her family around the table with warmth, love, and plenty of food. Her home was always open, her heart always full.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. at Sisk Brothers Funeral Home, 3105 Whitney Ave., Hamden. Visitation will be from 10 a.m. until the time of service. Burial will follow at All Saints Cemetery. To leave an online condolence please visit www.siskbrothers.com

“ To my beautiful Auntie, Oh how I'll miss you. You were one of the kindest most loving person I have ever met. You did an amazing job raising your two sons. I know they were your world. You will be so missed by so many. I'll never forget you and all the love you gave to everyone you touched. I love you Auntie! Rest easy! 💔
