

Marguerite Quinn

August 2, 1930 - March 12, 2012

Marguerite (Griffin) Quinn, of East Lyme, passed away peacefully on March 12, 2012 at Yale New Haven Hospital in the presence of her loving family. Marge was born in Waterbury on August 2, 1930 to parents Marguerite and Edward Griffin. She was a graduate of St. Elizabeth's College and held a Masters Degree in nursing from Yale University. She worked as a school nurse at Crosby High School in Waterbury for many years before moving to East Lyme in 1978. She became a real estate broker and worked in real estate until she retired in 1997. Marge was survived by her husband of more than 54 years, James (Jim) K. Quinn. She leaves behind a son and daughter-in-law, James K. Quinn Jr. (known as Jay) and Joan (Constantine) Quinn of Gales Ferry; a daughter, Kris, of Cheshire; five grandchildren: Keith and Zachary Plimpton and Kelsey, Caitlin, and Conor Ferguson. She was predeceased by her daughter, Cheryl Ferguson. Marge was a wonderful mother, wife, grandmother, and friend. She will always be remembered as a kind and generous person who cherished her family and friends enormously. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at Saint Matthias Church, 317 Chesterfield Road, East Lyme, on Friday, April 13 at 10 am. Burial will follow in St. Patrick Cemetery, River Road, Old Mystic. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to Connecticut Hospice in Branford at 100 Double Beach Road Branford, CT 06405. The phone number is (203)315-7575.
