“ Dear Teulings Family,

My cousin in Hamden sent me the article from the newspaper. Marie and I were good friends for 75 years -- since junior high school. We went everywhere together on weekends -- square dancing, roller skating, movies, etc.

After we were both married (my husband Dick was in the Navy), we moved from place to place. However, every time we went back to Hamden to visit, we always saw your Mom and Dad and went out to dinner together. Also talked on the phone twice a month until she couldn't talk on the phone anymore.

I shall miss our visits and calls -- My prayers are with all of you at this time.
