“ Mark was a friend from the past, and a great guy. Though I haven't seen him in the many years since moving from Hamden, I'll always remember his fun loving spirit, ready, mischievous smile and all around good nature.

To his family I wish my sincere condolences on Mark's passing.

Very sorry to hear this sad news. May he rest in peace.

“ Mark was a consummate gentleman. And he was smart enough to know that the safest place during a golf outing when the rain was coming down in buckets was the nearest tavern. I joined him there, and we toasted our good sense while the others soldiered on...

“ Mark was a Prince of a man. He was generous, understanding, and down to earth. The official obit mentions he was quiet, but had a unique sense of humor that we all knew and appreciated. It is hard to say more than that because that was his essence although there is so much more to be said. I could count 6 or 7 guys who considered Mark to be their best friend. As a friend, he was on your side, even when he knew you were wrong. Condolences to the Sullivan Family, Katie, and Greg, Julie, Thomas, and Bobby. He loved his kids and was so proud of them. We will remember the good times. I believe I was blessed and lucky to have a friend like Mark. Rest in peace, my friend. Chris Towle

“ I was very good friends with Mark in junior high and high school. We used to crack each other up so often. I loved his sense of humor. I remember in 9th grade French class we used to laugh about a little house you could see in the distance. I have since forgotten why but we found it very funny. How pleased I was when I learned that his son Tom became very good friends with my daughter Sarah in high school and remain good friends to this day. My wife and I want to offer our sincere condolences to the entire family. I know he will be deeply missed. Steve and Miriam Giskin

“ RIP Mark, i'm grateful for the times tagging along with your lunch 'crew' of Robert Fort and Mike Krauss. We enjoyed some of the best eats in New Haven and your dry one-liners always caught us off guard with perfect timing. I made sure my kids know the rule when eating pies at Pepe's and Modern, gotta order a picture of Foxon Birch Beer. My condolences to his family who he loved very much.

“ Thanks for all the great memories and laughs on our many golf trips and outings. You kept us all loose and relaxed from cracking jokes and scaring a newcomer with the rubber snake you kept in your bag. The many Sullyisms that you gave us we all still use such as "I'll drop one there," "still spinning," and my favorite "too squishy".
Rest in peace buddy. Joe

“ I will always remember his genuine laugh at those bad dad jokes and catching him picking his nose up and down 91 North before and after work. I hope his kids know how much he loved them and how proud he was of them.
