“They say that everyone has an “Aunt Mary.” There is none who impressed me more than our own. As I think back to my childhood as a nephew, she was the only girl in a family of brothers, an outgoing, adventurous person who had the courage and initiative to pursue her dreams wherever they led her — a young lady ahead of her time. Although she was seldom at home when we visited, her room in her parents’ home was never empty: she was always there in the thoughts of her family, an inspiration for what life was about. My sympathy to her children and their families. May cherished memories of her bring days of happiness ahead.

“ Hello Corcoran Family, What a great photo of your mom to put on this page. It is so your mom, and the way we should remember her. Well it's merry, as her name can imply! I will always remember your mom smiling and laughing... She knew how to get the most joy out of life. When she broke her hip jump-roping with her grandchildren, I think she was 80, or close to 80? Even that event, for her, after the trauma, was a reason to laugh, smile and reminisce with positive thoughts. Your mom was always there for others-- for her husband, for her children, her brothers, her grandchildren, friends and family. She had a wonderful life, and a devoted family-- filled with love, joy, laughter, friends and family. We are all blessed to have known her. She will be missed.

“ Mary was a close cousin to my mother Mary. They often were talking and giggling together when I was a child. I thought , as a child, that they were both beautiful women. Mary Corcoran remained beautiful for all of her life and her loss is a loss for our family. Our prayers and thoughts go out to her brothers and children. May her infectious smile live in your memories.
