“ My relationship with Mary began with a comment "do you want to say Yale is the only place you ever worked??" That was the beginning of a 30 yr friendship. I watched Mary and her neices and nephews grow up. We had an amazing trip to she her relatives in Ireland so I knew the Mchale family well and always enjoyed the many visits to 4 Park Ave. Mary and I were.co-workers and neighbors for 8 years she taught me to expand my music, drink lots of Killians but I will say I never was able to get use to all of the "Mary movies". Nora made sure Mary returned my calls when we both moved from Philadelphia. Mary is an amazing soul. Randy and I will miss her terribly and will hold many amazing memories close to our heart. I do have to say....Mary, "I hate you" (which is how she showed her love to me) and we Love you dearly❤️God bless.

“ Dear McHale family.

I (we) truly shocked to read this and know that Mary is gone. We were roommates in West Haven for several years. She was one laugh after the other. She and I were close back in the 80's, that she even even agreed to be in my wedding!!!! That was a stretch for her, but that truly demonstrated her love for Christopher and I. For many years, we lost touch, as we moved from the area.

Recently, over the last several years, we reconnected and it was as though we had never been separated by time. Our “reunions” at Tommy Sullivan’s were a sheer delight for Chris and I. We are so sorry that we will not see her again on this side of eternity, but long for the day of a heavenly reunion.

Please accept our deepest, most profound sympathy. She was a true gem in our lives.

“ The entire Conway clan is so saddened to hear of Maime's leaving us to join Michael, Nora and Theresa. We had so many fun times from pot luck to trips to Ireland. I will always remember the night she and I made Philly cheesesteaks for pot luck. Maime thank you for taking my children into your heart and giving them much joy. I know they loved you. We are better people because we had great friends like yourself in our lives.

To Mike, John and Joe we offer our prayers and condolences. You were lucky to have two wonderful and loving sisters to grow up with. God Bless

To all of Maime's family and friends, you will miss her and miss her so, but also remember all the great times you shared. Those memories are what life is all about.

“Mary McHale, indeed, one of a kind. A true O’Neill/McHale in the sense of how incredibly deep-rooted in family she was rendering her generous, kind spirit and touching everyone around her. Her visit with us here in Maine and seeing Schatzi introduced her to a whole new world of Shih Tzu mania and her love of all of them. Someone so special can never be forgotten. Mary McHale, a cherished Irish blessing who will be terribly missed and gone way too soon.

We are sharing in your sorrow and may your hearts find peace and comfort,

“So many memories with Mary-ooch and Theresa. Trying to teach her to drive was especially thrilling with Theresa coaching in the passenger seat and me and Kathleen standing in the road cheering her on. And diving out of the way! Will miss you Mary. Love you my friend.

“ Thinking of you all at this difficult time. We have great memories of all Mary's trips to Mayo and a summer I spent with all the family many years ago. Her camera was always close to hand capturing great pictures but it proved more difficult for us to get a photo of her. Mary will be sorely missed by us all.

“ Sincere sympathy to the McHale and O'Neill families on the untimely death of your beloved Mary. She certainly would not have wanted any fuss and she just passed quietly. She will be missed but not forgotten. Memory of her first trip to Ireland when she was 5yrs old will stay with me forever. The day she was going back to America, she fell into a bunch of nettles and the screaming could be heard across the Irish Sea. May her gentle soul rest in peace.

Our sincere sympathies to all of Mary's family on the sad loss of a great sister and aunt. Mary had a big heart and generous spirit. She always made you feel comfortable in her company. She had a great sense of humour. We have great memories of her visits to Mayo where she loved a little tippie of whiskey. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends near and far. Rest in peace Mary.

You are all in our thoughts and prayers at this sad and difficult time.
