“ Aunt Mary would light up a room with her smile and laughter. When I first met her with her nephew, Don, I was warmly welcomed by her and the family. Aunt Mary lived a kind and gentle to all life. Now she is with Our Lord God in eternal peace.

“ Mary will be missed greatly. She gave her patients the best of care and was a wonderful fellow nurse. As a friend, Mary was always caring and supportive. Whether it was her U-Conn Huskies Basketball or a charitable event, her spirit was joyous! In facing her illness she was courageous ... I am so sorry that Mary is no longer with us... but memories of her live on in our hearts. Deepest sympathy to her beloved nieces and nephews...you were Mary's rock. rest in peace my friend, Susan Campbell
