“ I have had the pleasure of taking care of miss mary,in her older years. And i cherished everyday . My excentric little friend was my running partner for years. And i loved her dearly! She went every where with me in my jeep ,even the day i had to tie the door shut and she said it was like lassoing andcriding a horse. !!! Lol we talked about it for years . Im gonna miss you mary. “ Although I had not seen Mary for many, many years, my memories of her are so clear and delightful. What a sense of humor is my first thought. My second thought is of the blizzard of 1978 when the two of us got stuck in New Haven and had to stay in the primary hotel down town -- what fun we had -- She was bright and charming and I am honored that I knew her. My heartfelt sympathies to her family and wishing you Mary, safe passage. Margaret Dugett Gibson
