“ Aunt Mary was one of a kind, Aunt, friend, mother. She is the last of my family and now I feel like we are all orphans. Mary spread laughter, fun and amusement where ever she went. To know Mary was to love her. She is now in heaven with Unk. This is what she wanted and the good Lord made it possible for her. His grace and mercy was sprinkled upon our wonderful Aunt. Now she is at peace. We will miss her and morn her loss. We will always remember her humor and try to smile. She would not want us to be sad. Loosing her made my heart break. But I know we will be meet again and she will be waiting for us in heaven with arms open wide and her beautiful smile. My condolences to my cousins and her relatives and friends.

Till we meet again,

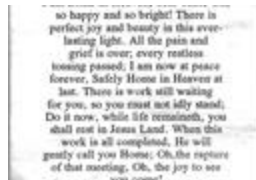

Caarrrr
