“ Everyone that had the blessing of being in Maggie’s presence can all agree how much an incredible woman she was. She was generous, wise, and unapologetically optimistic. She never complained and always had a listening ear for you. I didn’t realize or appreciate this as a child, but as a young adult I do. Spending summers and holidays with her was one of the few things I looked forward to in my childhood. She made them wholesome and memorable. Helping her bake when I was younger is something I will never forget. Although she was the one to do the actual baking, and I the mixing, she happily let me take the credit.

I love and miss you, Maggie.
