

Meghan L. Stratton

September 17, 1972 - December 30, 2025

The family of Meghan McDermott Stratton sadly announces her passing on December 30, 2025, following a courageous battle with cancer. Meghan was a devoted wife, loving mother, cherished daughter, sister, aunt, and dear friend to many. Born in New Haven on September 17, 1972, Meghan grew up in Hamden, Connecticut. She was a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy and attended Eastern Connecticut State University. In her early twenties, Meghan met the love of her life, John. Together, they spent their younger years snowmobiling, traveling, and creating lasting memories with close friends and family. Meghan's greatest dream was to become a mother, a role she embraced with her whole heart. She was blessed with her four children, Emma, Leigha, Michael, and Jack, who were her greatest pride and joy. As a stay-at-home mom, Meghan created a warm, loving home filled with laughter and unconditional love. In addition to her husband and children, Meghan is survived by her parents, Barry McDermott and Suzanne (Bob) McDermott; her brother, Scott (Georgia) McDermott; her in-laws, John and Eileen Stratton; her sister-in-law, Patricia Bailey; and her cherished niece and nephews, Erin Bailey and Dillon and Matthew McDermott. She is also lovingly remembered by many cousins, friends, and extended family members. Meghan was predeceased by her grandparents and her brother-in-law, Richard Bailey. A Mass of Christian Burial will be Celebrated Wednesday at 10 a.m. in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. Friends are asked to go directly to church. Burial in All Saints Cemetery.
