“ With my eyes closed I can see, with my ears covered I can hear this unique and great American. Mike would always stop briefly and talk with my wife and I as he walked the beaches of Mexico. Wearing that distinctive pith helmet and in that unique voice he would tell us what Italian meal he had prepared the night before, throwing in a wild story about his wonderful life, stories that no one ever doubted :). Mike never once failed, no matter how brief his visit, to mention his family and the pride and love beamed bright. Our life was enriched because we encountered this jewel of New Haven. Every year after we checked in the hotel we looked for Mike on the beach. God will have plenty of help now that Mike is present. Family members, thank you for sharing this magic human being with those of us fortunate enough to have known him.
