“ Mike and I go back over 50 years. We bowled, played bridge as partners (he taught and carried me - with patience). We played poker and shared music. Our families grew up together, and still maintain contact. I enjoyed all the time I spent with Mike over the decades. Our conversations would begin with family, and extend in many directions.

Mike was an intelligent, exemplary gentleman, accompanied with humility.

I know he is in a better place now. I miss him already

Rest in piece.

“ Cousin Michael - although we didn't visit in person a lot we did speak on the phone and I will miss your “words of wisdom” and since of humor. You will always live in my memories.

Rest In Peace. Cousin Louise (Eugenio)
