“ My memories of Michelle are sweet and pure...just the way she always was. The true love of Bob's life and more than a wonderful mother and great partner. Michelle graced us all at Platt by being there as part of our school family. Can't begin to recount how many times just her smile or wink would put Bob back into focus. Some things only happen that way when two people are deeply in love. Patti and I offer our prayers and condolence at her loss.

“ A kinder more loving person would be hard to find. Her life was cut way too short but was filled with a devoted husband and the two boys she loved so much. Her many friends knew her for the wonderful person she was. She will be greatly missed. May she now be surrounded by as many frogs as she desires to keep her company.

Love

As shocked and painful as news of Michelle passing is, we have to accept the fact that HEAVEN needed a wonderful soul so it now has one.

Bob, Michael and Marc, this too shall pass and when it does all you will be left with will be beautiful memories of Michelle. We feel your pain at this difficult time.

Have our sympathy!
