“ My condolences to the Devine Family. My dad, John (Turk) Durkin, was one of his good friends. The name Mickey Devine always rang out in our house. NY Giants tailgate excursions with the gang were always enjoyed. My mom, 97 yo, called me to tell me of Mickey's passing. They all grew up in Fairhaven. The greatest generation indeed. I enclose a picture of Mickey - circa ~1944, at home in Fairhaven - most likely on a brief leave. He is pictured with my dad's brother - (also named) Mickey Durkin.

“ He was such a kind, dignified man. His 5 son's carry on that wonderful quality. He always had a hug and "Hey, how you doin." When I saw him. I will never forget being part of the family for a time. I hope they have candy kiss's in heaven.
