

Miriam "Lynne" Wootton

April 11, 1942 - March 17, 2015

Miriam "Lynne" Wootton died March 17, 2015 with her family by her side. Born April 11, 1942 to the late Miriam Cox McLeod and Walter McLeod. Beloved mother of Kelly (Jay) McGuinness, Mark (Gina) Wootton, Tracey (Jack) Vegliante, Scott (Tracy) Wootton. She is the grandmother of Sean (Sarah), Taylor & Dylan McGuinness, Alyssa, Michael & Nicholas Andreucci, Jack, Grace & Christopher Wootton, Mark and Matthew Wootton. She is also survived by her devoted love of 21 years, Leonard Axelrod and her best friends Joann & Wendell Corey and Pam & Dan Ossorio. Lynne had a successful career at Yale University as Director of Admissions for Yale University School of Medicine. She was a vivacious, joyful woman full of life. She was a lifelong, die hard NY Yankee fan who loved traveling the world with Len. Her kids and grandchildren were her life. The family expresses deepest appreciation to Dr. Wassim Fares of Yale and Kim Doerfler and Linda Hill of Hospice at Masonicare.

“ YOU will always be in my memory and heart!! We shared so much fun and good stories together. Trips to N.C and airplane scenarios come to mind!!!
I remember how much I admired the ceramic note holder you had in your kitchen.
How sweet of you to buy me one. Whenever I use it- I fondly think of you.
What a wonderful and brave and loving and giving person and friend you were.
YOU are missed.
Love,
June

“ To our dear, dear friend, Lynne, we mourn your loss but celebrate your life. How lucky we are to have had you in our lives; I just wanted more! We had so much fun and so many adventures. We love your smile, your heart, your family, my Godson, Dylan, and each and every one of your children and grandchildren. We shared heartaches, but mainly joy. Len and you were great partners-we loved vacationing with you both! I will have a glass of wine with you (or two!) every Tuesday...ok, maybe every day! I only wish I could have retired sooner so we could have travelled more. You made Yale's Cell Biology Department a better place, and I know you loved your friends and co-workers and med students in Admissions. You touched hundreds of lives, and each one of us is better for it. Thank you for sending us the shooting star last night...love forever Lines, love, Pans (Pam) and Danny

“ What a sweet, wonderful lady Lynne was. I didn't get to spend much time with her over the last 15 years since I met her, but for those times I was fortunate enough to share, I could see, and still see how much joy she brought to those in her circle, especially you, Len. Lynne will be sorely missed. Thank you for sharing her with us for during her time here on earth. My condolences to you, Len, Mark, Scott, Kelly, Tracey and your entire family.

“ At this very difficult time please know that so many people's lives were truly blessed to have had Lynne as a friend. She was a true friend who was always there when you needed her. Her love for her family was inspirational, you felt the pride and love in her voice when she spoke of each one of them. Rest in peace my friend and know that so many mourn your loss but rejoice in having known you. God Bless.

“ I am sad to hear of your Mom losing her battle here on earth but happy for her next life in the hands of Jesus in heaven with lots of loved ones that have gone before her. No more pain and suffering and no more limitations to what she was, now she is an angel with beautiful wings and twinkling eyes with that same great smile. I am glad I got to work with and get to know her at United Mortgage and she was something!!. She will always be in your heart and souls and never ending memories will sustain you all as you get older and watch your children grow and prosper. She did a fantastic job with you all and you can smile about that and so can your kids. "Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather, openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy" God Bless you all
