“ Many Memories of the K of C on Saturdays! Our Dads would take us down in the afternoons, it was a great break for our Moms! The Dads would spoil us to no end with Pizza, ect.! And the Park in North Haven in the Summer, was the best! Everyone was a Big Family, those were the days! The time was simple and dear to all. I always remember how close we all were and how everyone watched out for everyone. Marching in the Parade with our Dads was the Best! Nick Liguori was a Gem! Always dressed to the 9's! What a great Family. May he rest in Peace, Love and Prayers going to the Family. This was the "Greatest Generation"!! Pass on all they taught us, or it will all be in vain. This younger Generation needs to follow our parents foot steps, get out in your community and Volunteer, like our parents did. All of these great organizations are closing down! We owe it to them to carry on!
