

Patricia E. McHugh

December 1, 1944 - October 25, 2022

Patricia E. Lawlor McHugh, 77, of Cheshire passed away peacefully at her home on Oct. 25, 2022, with her family at her side. Survived by her beloved husband Lawrence T. McHugh, loving children Gretchen M. (David) Lapierre of Hebron, Karen A. (Joseph) Quinn of Cheshire and Lawrence A. McHugh of Cheshire, cherished grandchildren Erin and David Lapierre and Tommy Quinn, a sister Bridget (Donald) Mariano of Naugatuck and several nieces, nephews and cousins. She was predeceased by a sister, Sr. Jeremy Lawlor O.P. (Margaret Mary). She was born Dec. 1, 1944 in New Haven a daughter of the late Andrew and Margaret Coyle Lawlor, was a graduate of the former St. Mary's High School where she was a cheerleader and had attended Quinnipiac College. As a young girl she was a talented ballet and toe dancer and was passionate about music and dance. After working for many years at the S.N.E.T. Co. she worked for a time for Arbor Oil Co. until she finally retired. She was a member of St. Bridget of Sweden Parish in Cheshire and was a former member of the League of Women Voters. Pat's mother Margaret grew up in County Cavan, Ireland and immigrated to the U.S as a teenager. She enjoyed passing down stories about Ireland and Pat often shared these stories and others about growing up with her two sisters and many Irish cousins. Pat's mother was mentioned in the book "The Road to Avondale " by Thomas Briody as an influential person in the author's life. The book gave insight into Pat's mother's life in Ireland. Even during her yearlong battle with cancer, she still always put everyone first and never lost her sense of humor.

She was the best mother a person could ask for.

“ We have so many loving memories of spending holidays with Pat. She loved our kids as her own. Always asking about sports, school, friends. We will miss our chats and sharing special moments with her. We are so happy to have had the time with Pat over the years.
Love,
Dave, Claudine, Ethan, and Ali
