“ Pat will be missed. Steve and I began bowling with Pat & Dan perhaps in 1999? Our team, Boys on the Side, won the Rainbow Bowling League three times all with Pat in the line-up. He was also a league officer for a time as well as the Director of The Sweetheart Invitational Bowling Tournament. He was a man with a kind heart, a generous spirit and an occasional silly joke. Pat faced his battle with courage and dignity - it was just the way he was. Our thoughts and prayers are with Dan and the Mathews Family. Rest in peace our friend.

“ Pat such a courageous fight. From when you first came to translations thru our time in the NRC, I enjoyed talking to you. Whether it be the Flyers, Phillies or Steelers to our times at ND, we always had something to share.
You are at peace now my friend after a tough road. You were an inspiration to all on how to carry yourself thru a tremendously tough time.

God bless.
