

Peter D. Chadwick

November 8, 2014

Chadwick, Peter D. Col. (USAF Ret.)

Peter passed away on November 8, 2014 in Glendale, Arizona. He was surrounded by his loving family. Peter was born in Waterbury in 1934 to the late Joseph J. and Frances Scully Chadwick. He was raised in Hamden. He graduated from Hamden High School and attended and graduated from Brown University. Upon graduation Peter became an officer in the United States Air Force. He became a jet pilot and served in Vietnam. For his service there he was awarded the Bronze Star and the Distinguished Flying Cross. Upon his retirement from the Air Force he became the Flight Operations Director for Airline Training Center Arizona, Inc. He always said that he was fortunate to have two careers that he loved. He is survived by his wife of 52 years Gail Howard Chadwick, also by his three Children, Leslie Chadwick of Peoria, Arizona, Jennifer Chadwick of Oakland, California and Anthony H. Chadwick of Phoenix, Arizona. He will also be terribly missed by his sister Patricia Chadwick Carey and his brother Joseph J. Chadwick, both of Hamden. He leaves many nieces, nephews, friends and colleagues. Peter will also be missed by all those who were fortunate enough to know him. He was very smart, very witty and a very loving man. He was a marathon runner, a pretty good golfer, a hiker-he and his wife hiked the Grand Canyon together. He really loved his family and his friends. The world is so very much a poorer place with him gone.

Those who wish may send a contribution to; Hospice of the Valley 1510 East Flower St. Phoenix, Arizona 85014. To leave an online condolence please visit www.siskbrothers.com
