

Philip Goduti,

March 11, 1932 - March 20, 2012

Philip A. Goduti, Sr. 80, of Hamden died March 20, 2012. He was married to Rosemarie (Mendes) Goduti of Hamden for 38 years. He was born on March 11, 1932 to the late Renato and Anna (Ursini)Goduti in New Haven. Goduti grew up in Somerville, Massachusetts with his brother Rocco and sisters Irma and Rita. The family moved to Hamden when he was nine years old. After his brother served in World War II, Goduti was inspired to join the Army and served for two years. He earned an honorable discharge in 1951 as a Corporal. He was best known for his time with the Hamden Police Department. Goduti joined as a patrolman in 1958 and retired as a member of the Detective Bureau in 1977. An expert in fingerprinting, he earned twenty-three letters of commendation. Goduti was an avid gardner, fisherman and fan of Sinatra. He made spectacular home-made Italian dinners for his friends and family for years. He leaves behind son Philip, his wife Alyssa and their three children Alexander, Olivia and Samuel of Cromwell, Ct; his son Michael and wife Christine of New York City; his son Mark, his wife Heather and their son Connor of Prospect, Ct; his son Matthew of Hamden, Ct. He was a beloved father, grandfather and husband. His larger-than -life personality and endearing charm was something every person cherished. He also leaves behind Ellen and Andrew Moore of West Haven, Ct.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Saturday at 10:00 am in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. Friends are asked to go directly to church. Calling hours are Friday from 5 to 8 pm in Sisk Brothers Funeral Home, 3105 Whitney

Ave, Hamden CT. In lieu of flowers contributions to Smilow Cancer Hospital,
