

Philip C. Stratton

January 20, 1938 - December 10, 2021

Philip C. Stratton, age 83, passed away into the hands of God on December 10, 2021 at his home in Hamden. He was born in Aughnasheelin, Ballinamore, Co. Leitrim, Ireland on January 20, 1938. Philip is survived by his loving wife of 53 years, Ann (Walsh) Stratton. He is also survived by his loving children: Stephen & Kim Stratton, Allison & Eric Peterson, Jennifer Stratton, and Shannon & Rob Martinez. Phil adored his grandchildren: Jennifer, Christopher, Nicholas, Owen, Avery, Brianna, Eli, and Norah. Phil was the son of (Patrick) Joe and Celia (Gormley) Stratton of Ballinamore, Leitrim. Phil also cherished his siblings. In addition to his parents, Phil is predeceased by his siblings: Maura & Jim McGuinness, Joseph Stratton, Anne Beirne, and Oliver & Bridie Stratton, nephew Joseph and grand-nephew Michael Torello. He is survived by his siblings: John & Eileen Stratton, Patrick & Bridie Stratton, Anthony & Eileen Stratton, Philomena & Chris Dolan, Francis & Mary Stratton, Gerald & Nancy Stratton, Thomas & Helen Stretton, and Kathleen Stretton. He also leaves behind many beloved nieces and nephews. Phil was a proud and dedicated New Haven Firefighter for 31 years. He also served as a New Haven Marshall for two decades. He was an active member and two-time Past President of the Irish American Community Center/New Haven Gaelic Football & Hurling Club. Phil was named the 2005 NHGF&HC Irishman of the Year. Phil's passion was playing Irish music on the fiddle. He loved to socialize and never missed an opportunity to tell friends (or new friends) a story or two over a beer. He never realized how funny he was, but his stories will live on. He valued his family and friendships above all. He made it a top priority to visit and check in on anyone he cared about. As a devoted member of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, his faith was unwavering, but he was never one to preach to others. As an Irish immigrant, he worked hard to create the American Dream for his family.

*I also have very fond memories of Circular Avenue mini-concerts put on by the Stratton boys and others. My grandparents Anna and Charlie McHugh (parents of my mom Jane) hosted many a summer BBQ in their Circular Avenue home. How I wish there were videos of some of those wonderful events. “The nephews” were amazing ... unfortunately I was too young to appreciate the Irish culture that Phil and the rest brought to America. My thoughts and prayers are with you all back East as you say farewell to a super nice guy.

My condolences to the Stratton family. Being the daughter of Denis and Teresa Bramble I knew many in the family and am well aware of the losses and heart break your family has suffered. My thoughts are with you in your time of need.
