“ Phyllis was the only neighbor that came to welcome us to the neighborhood when we moved in. The dogs started barking and she let me know she was afraid of dogs. She grew to love the dogs and told me many she felt safe because she knew they were outside and were on alert. If she didn't hear them she would call to ask if they were alright. She was also afraid of cats and would call and say "Lin, your cat is here on my back porch, it's ok though, he catches the mice". We had many wonderful conversations & laughs. We will miss her. R.I.P Phyllis.

“ Phyllis was a person all her own. You never knew what she was going to say next. Because of her our family was blessed to have her grandson Bill in our lives through our son Christopher Gallucci. I knew her much longer than that but was blessed to have Bill in our lives. David and I are so sorry for your loss. It is never easy. You are in our prayers to Bill and his family. God Bless you all. “ I met Phyllis last year and cared for her for a short time, in that time, we shared many stories and jokes. She was a fighter and enjoyed her family alot. My last memory with Phyllis was the last day of my time with her, we shared a glass of wine and she gave a hug and said see y'all kiddo. I'm going to miss her fierce spirit, glad I got the chance to meet her. R.I.P. til we meet again 💜💜💜
