“ I am at a loss for adequate words to express my grief. It is times like this that put our faith to the test. I was blessed enough to share in his life and find myself thinking of how much he will be missed. I am comforted because I am one of the lucky ones whose life was touched by this very special man.

There are no words that can actually make things any different. However, the passage of time, the support of family and friends and the working through of thoughts and memories will gradually soothe the sting of this grievous loss.

There are so many aspects of Richard that are not really lost and will remain forever and will be passed down through every succeeding generation. So with respect to Richard's life, don't cry because it is over—smile because it happened.

I join you and the many others who will miss him, but remain grateful for having him as my cousin. Linda Smelser

I am visiting Elena and Sonia in Charleston SC right now. So sorry to hear of Richie's passing. It was quite a shock. I'm sorry I won't be there to share my condolences with Nadia and the family at the funeral.

I remember Richie and the wonderful photos he took, especially the one of granddaddy. We have that hanging with our family photos. I will always remember him as a warm and loving person.

With a heavy heart filled with love...your cousin, Nadia.
