“ To Roxanne and family, we are deeply saddened to hear about Rick's passing. He was a very kind hearted man and Andy enjoyed working with him for many years. Rick took Andy to Frank Pepe pizzeria many yrs ago when he visited on a business trip and it was so delicious & memorable that he drove 2 hours out of our way on a recent road trip just so our family could have the wonderful experience that he had with Rick. Another special memory that we will hold dear to our hearts is the great fun we had with you and Rick in Hawaii several years ago. Please know you are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To Roxanne and family. I met Rick through Ridge Road School when our daughters were there. I think he did some sort of a financial planning or saving for college workshop. We met again when he managed the 401K plan for the company I work for, Marrakech Inc. I eventually started investing with him. He was an easy person to work with and genuinely was interested in making sure I was comfortable with how we were investing my money. I know he loved to golf and often mentioned his family. I am truly saddened by his death. May you find some comfort in the days ahead from the outpouring of love and admiration so many people felt for him. With sincere condolences, Rhonda & James Voos

“ We have been clients of Rick for more than 25 years, following him through six office locations. The world has lost a truly decent and kind man. In our dealings with him he was extremely professional while becoming a trusted friend at the same time. He often went above and beyond what was required, sometimes putting in extra work which resulted in no financial gain for himself. We will miss his great smile and sense of humor. Our condolences to his beloved family.

“ I was so sad to hear of Rick's passing. I worked for Rick's investment broker/dealer and spent many years working and talking with Rick on the phone. I'd also see and spend some time with him at least once per year. It's very easy to understand why so many people trusted Rick with their financial futures. He was kind, smart, caring and always out for what's best for them. Always a gentleman, offering a smile and friendly voice. I can only imagine how much the family misses him already. Eventually your great memories with Rick will take overtake the pain and leave only peace and love. Please take some solace knowing that you'll all be together again one day.

God bless Rick and family.

Sincerely,

John Feldman

“ Roxanne and family,

So heartbroken to hear of Rick's passing. He was a funny, caring man and a good friend to John. His eulogy at John's gravesite was so heartfelt and captured John so perfectly, and it meant the world to us. I still have it and occasionally re-read it because Rick's words were so comforting. You and the boys are blessed to have shared your lives with such a kind and loving soul. I hope those memories bring you peace in time.

“ Dear Rox and family-

We will miss Rick. He was a class act. We remember his attention to detail when it came to his golf outfit. From his shirt to his belt to his shoes and shorts!!

Death is truly an enemy and something no one is equipped or designed to deal with. It is our hope that in the tragic days ahead you will have the strength and courage to face it.

I met Rick over 30 years ago through his sister Liz. She recommended him for financial advice when I was first married. Over the years he has always been there for me to help me through difficult financial times giving great advice .But more than that he was a caring, kind, funny sweet man and one of the most decent human beings I ever knew. I am stunned that he has gone so young and I send my deepest sympathy. to his family.
