“ We are so saddened. We will always remember him and his love of all things Indy, Corvettes and Disney! How much he just loved Christmas and decorating each tree. I will always remember the way his eyes would squint tight with that smile when a good laugh presented itself... And oh how he did enjoy a good laugh! And I will forever remember the way he would light up with pride to share a success of Stephanie's or Christopher's and most especially his grandchildren. His love for them was immeasurable. Each story was shared with such happiness and joy from Grampy - his most cherished title. Rest in Peace Rick, you are already missed so much. -With love xo

“ I can't believe this, so very sad at 64 years old. Gone too soon. You're sadly missed by your family and so many cherished friends. I'm in deep shock.

I've known Ricky since my young teenage years. A wonderful guy and always had a smile on his face. Our parent's were very close through many years passed. He has the most caring and giving parents, I have ever known. God Bless them and your entire family at a very heartfelt difficult time.
