“ I remember going on a trip to Washington to watch the Redskins play the Bills with Bob, Pat, Vinny and Jay and as fun and great of an experience going to the game was, I'll always remember the night before with all of us hanging out at the hotel and the hilarity that ensued. Bob always let you know how he felt and was always a straight shooter. You will be missed. My condolences to Pat and the whole family.

Bob was a GREAT guy! My sincere condolences to his family. I worked with Bob for many, many years at Entenmann's. He was the kind of co-worker everyone wants, friendly, funny and hard working. Bob always had your back. He will be missed! I will walk to honor Bob in the walk against Alzheimer's on Sept 24th at Light House Point in New Haven. This is a horrible disease, Bob deserved better! Rest in pease my friend!
