“ Dear Mrs. Lee, Joe and family: I am saddened to learn of the passing of Mr. Lee, unfortunately I am unable to attend the service morning. As I'm sure you know Mr. Lee was a great person and had many friends in and around West Haven. He was a terrific sports enthusiast, especially hockey. When I'd see him he would always have a story about a game he attended in the old Garden watching the great players of his day. Knowing that I'm a Wings fan he'd often tell me of "Terrible" Ted Lindsay, Gordie Howe and the rest. He was also very kind; on more than one occasion he secured us seats behind the dugout at at Yankee Stadium when the Tigers came to town. I always enjoyed his company, he was a great man and will missed by many. My sincere condolences and prayers are with you all. Dave Coyle
